

Western Cue-Bids

The Western (California) Cue-Bid is a cue bid of the Opponent's suit, and is one of the most confusing and most-asked about conventions. It refers to when your side bids the Opponent's suit and is used only in contested competitive auctions, below game level. This bid is also known as "Who's got the Stopper?" It is forcing, and asks Partner for a full stopper (Qxx or better) in the Opponent's bid suit. Holding one, Partner bids 3-No-Trump. Lacking one, Partner bails out to the Partnership's suit or by making any other non-forcing, natural suit bid. The bid is fairly common, and is not alertable as the Opponent's are presumed to recognize calls in their own suit. The Western Cue-Bid works to one's advantage because if the final contract 3-NT, the lead then comes up to the hand with the stopper, rather than through it. The cue-bidder can be looking for a stopper in the Opponent's suit for a possible 3-NT contract, or even hold a Slam interest.

Any bid of Opponent's suit at a level higher than 3-NT is not considered a Western Cue-Bid. It, alternatively, means something else, usually showing a control with slam interest in the suit previously agreed-upon by the Partnership. Western cues are commonly used when an opening bidder and his Partner are both bidding different suits in a contested auction but cannot locate a playable, game, suit contract. A Western cue-bid is not a jump to the 3-level – you must already be at the 3-level; and it does not apply when you side has found a Major suit fit in which to play.

Example 1:	1C 3C	1H P	1S “3H”(?)	2H (Opener is being asked to bid 3-NT with a Heart stopper)
Example 2:	1S 3C	2D P	2H “3D”(?)	P (“North, bid 3-NT with a Diamond stopper.)

Western cues can also be utilized by the overcalling team once the Opponents have previously opened the bidding.

. If the Opponents have bid two suits, a cue-bid does not ask, it tells. When looking for 3-NT after the Opponents have bid two suits, a cue-bid, by either Partner shows, rather than asks for, a stopper in the Opponent's bid suit. That lets partner evaluate his/her hand for a no-trump contract. If Partner has the alternate enemy suit under control, Partner can bid 3 no-trump; confident that both suits are protected.
